Accelerate cash into your business!

The biggest problem faced by most small to medium businesses is a lack of capital. This is particularly the case for a growing business. At Contributor we truly understand these problems because our founders have experienced those problems at first hand in a wide variety of other business enterprises. We understand how a business succeeds, how it can accumulate and build capital for its future security and growth. Our three separate services all focus around the short term use of our capital, allowing you to 'rent' the use of our capital and helping you to accumulate your own capital in your own business.

Use your invoices to accelerate cash into your business

Log in to our user friendly online system

Immediate LIVE access to your account 24/7

Your money is transferred the same day you request it

No hidden set up or management fees apply

You can grow your facility as your business grows

We will listen with enthusiasm at any small to medium sized business seeking financial support.
